"The Old Catholic Church of the Netherlands"
(February 2007)

Bishop LaPlante of the Old Catholic Church of British Columbia is traveling throughout Europe to meet and associate with the churches of the Union of Utrecht. The Old Catholic Church of British Columbia is an associate member of the Union of Utrecht and it is desirable to get to know the partners with whom you are associated.

In recent days, Bishop LaPlante was in Germany and today he is meeting with the Bishop of Haarlem, with whom he will travel to Egmond. On Saturday, February 3rd, together with the Archbishop, Bishop LaPlante will visit the cathedral in Utrecht. Also, he will meet with the rector of the Old Catholic seminary, Prof. Dr. A. Berlis.

After that, Father van der Velde will take Bishop LaPlante to see the phenomenal safe-church, the centuries-old and free Haagse Parish-church on the Juffr. Idastreet. From Sunday the itinerary will be somewhat frantic: attending the International Bishop's Conference in Switzerland. After the conference, Bishop LaPlante will be a guest at the Swiss sister church for several days.
