

Above left: St. James Anglican Church in Lac Beauport, Quebec; right picture: At the beginning of Holy Mass: Bishop Gérard LaPlante, with Mr. Jacques-Jean Guilbert

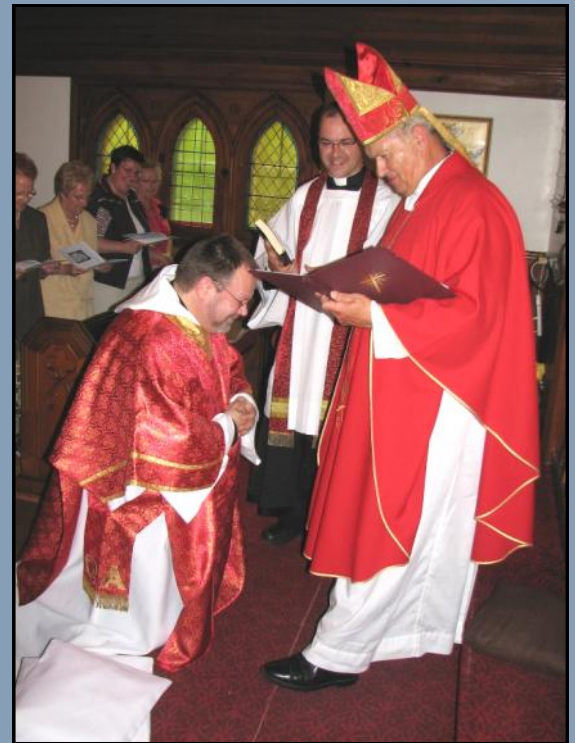

Newly ordained Deacon Jacques-Jean Guilbert

On July 27, 2008 Bishop J. Gérard A. LaPlante ordained Mr. Jacques-Jean Guilbert from Québec City, Québec to the diaconate in the presence of Fr. Sylvain Tremblay and Fr. Fernand Frigon from Montreal, and Fr. Claude Lacroix from Québec City. The parents of the new deacon, friends, and parishioners of the Good Shepherd Old Catholic Mission filled the Church to witness the ceremony and to welcome the new deacon as a member of the clergy of the Old Catholic Church of BC.

Continue next page

above left picture during the ordination service: Bishop Gérard LaPlante assisted by Fr. Sylvain Tremblay on the left and Fr. Claude Lacroix on the right. Above right picture: The candidate lies prostrate during the singing of the lity

Above left: The laying on of hands for the ministry of the diaconate.
On the right: The new Deacon in his vestments

Newly ordained Deacon Jacques-Jean Guilbert cont.

The new deacon was born in Saint-Hyacinthe, Québec on April 24, 1962 where he was baptized the same year in St. Eugène Roman Catholic Church and confirmed by Bishop Albert Sanchargrin at the Roman Catholic Cathedral in Saint-Hyacinthe in 1970. He studied at the University of Laval, receiving his Bachelor in Theology in 1989, and his Certificate in Pedagogy in 1991. He is currently enrolled at the University of Laval in the Master of Theology program and expects to graduate in 2009. He will assist Fr. Claude Lacroix at the Good Shepherd Old Catholic Mission in Québec City, Québec.

Continue on next

above left picture: The clergy of the Old Catholic Church of BC in Quebec: back row: Fr. Sylvain Tremblay, Bishop Gérard LaPlante, Deacon Jacques-Jean Guilbert, front row: Fr. Fernand Frigon, Fr. Claude Lacroix;
above right: members of Good Shepherd Old Catholic Mission in Lac Beauport, Quebec, family, and friends pose with clergy

Above left: left to right: in the garden of Fr. Claude Lacroix: Fr. Claude Lacroix, Mr. Jacques Duchêsne, Bishop Gérard LaPlante, Mrs. Monique LaPlante. top right picture: Mr. Duchêsne, Mrs. LaPlante, Fr. Lacroix, the new Deacon Fr. Jacques-Jean Guilbert

Visitors from Causapsca

Bishop Gérard LaPlante was visiting his family for the funeral of his brother Jean-Claude LaPlante in his hometown of Causapsca, Quebec, which is located on the Gaspé coast. His sister Mme. Monique LaPlante and her husband Mr. Jacques Duchêsne drove the Bishop to Quebec City, which is more than 500 km's away. Continue on the next page

above pictures: on the left: Mr. Duchêsne, Mrs. Monique LaPlante, Bishop Gérard LaPlante, Deacon Jacques-Jean Guilbert. On the right: The Processional Church in Ile d'Orléans, Québec

Above left: the Altar in the Processional Chapel of Ile d'Orléans.
top right picture: The open door of the tabernacle

A small Processional Chapel

This small Processional Chapel is located in Ile d'Orléans, close to Québec City. This kind of chapel was used for the Corpus Christi Procession in Québec. Many chapels still exist today and are open to the travelling public for prayers and meditation. The interior of the tabernacle of this chapel was designed and painted in Oil by Sister Raphael, n.d.p.s.

above pictures: on the left: the memorial plaque in the little chapel On the right: Bishop Gérard talking with a neighbor at the chapel